Jenny Asmundsson new Head of Business Development at Hemfosa

Jenny Asmundsson has been recruited to the newly established position as Head of Business Development at Hemfosa Fastigheter. With her extensive experience from senior positions in both private and municipal property operations, Jenny Asmundsson will contribute key expertise in work with municipal relationships and concepts.

Jenny joins the company from CBRE Sweden AB, the Swedish operations of the international property consulting company, where she held the position of Senior Director. Prior to this, she worked for eight years in various management positions in the Municipality of Nacka. As Head of Housing and Business Development, Jenny's responsibilities included the supply of social welfare properties in the municipality and as Property Director for the direction, management and development of the municipality's property operations.

Jenny was born in 1972 and holds a Master of Science in Engineering Surveying from the KTH Royal Institute of Technology in Stockholm. She will take up her position in June 2019.

"We are very pleased with the recruitment of Jenny Asmundsson as new Head of Business Development at Hemfosa. Her background and expertise fits in perfectly with efforts to strengthen relationships with municipalities and to develop concepts from our offerings, areas that are important elements in Hemfosa's continued growth. Jenny will also help the property management organization to realize the values in our existing property portfolio, for example, by creating new development rights," comments Caroline Arehult, CEO of Hemfosa.
