

Changes in HR at Castellum

Senior Vice President, Human Resources Anne Thelin-Ehrling has decided to leave Castellum. Olof Gertz has been appointed acting Senior Vice President Human Resources.

Anne Thelin-Ehrling joined Castellum in the role as HR Manager in January 2016. Later that year she was appointed Senior Vice President, Human Resources and member of Group Management. Anne is now returning to her own consulting business and to Stockholm where she lives.

“I want to sincerely thank Anne for her solid and wholehearted efforts and wish her the best of luck for the future”, says Henrik Saxborn, Castellum’s CEO.

Olof Gertz has been appointed acting Senior Vice President, Human Resources and member of Castellum Group Management. Olof has most recently worked with his own consulting business, and also brings extensive experience to Castellum from several executive positions in global companies, including Senior Vice President, Human Resources at Vattenfall AB and at DeLaval International. Olof will enter the position on February 1, 2018.

“We look forward to benefiting from Olof’s broad experience in continuing to harmonize HR work and develop the function within the Group”, says Henrik Saxborn.

Castellum is one of the major listed real estate companies in Sweden. The fair value of the real estate portfolio amounts to approx. SEK 81 billion and comprises commercial properties for office, retail, warehouse and logistics with a total lettable area of approx. 4.4 million sq. m.

The real estate portfolio is owned and managed under the Castellum brand through a decentralized organization with strong and clear local presence in 20 cities from Copenhagen in the south to Sundsvall in the north.

In 2017, Castellum received two awards for sustainability efforts; designated Number One in the world by GRESB for the offices-and-logistics sector, as well as the Level Gold award for sustainability reporting from the EPRA (European Public Real Estate Association). In addition, Castellum is the only Nordic real-estate and construction company elected to the Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI), joining a select group of companies in the world who perform best on sustainability issues.

The Castellum share is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm Large Cap.
