Maria Strandberg steps down as CFO at Castellum

Maria Strandberg has announced that she has decided to step down from her role as CFO at Castellum for new opportunities. Maria Strandberg will remain in her role pending recruitment of a new CFO.

“I would like to thank Maria for her work at Castellum, especially for the great effort she put into integrating the accounting functions during the combination of Castellum and Kungsleden this year. I wish Maria luck in her next assignment,” says Rutger Arnhult, CEO Castellum AB.

The recruitment process for a new CFO will begin immediately.
