Get ready for fall - House of Rym AW15

Summer is in full bloom at the House of Rym but it's time to prepare for colder days indoors. This season we offer some favourite patterns in other colours and designs, as well as some of our most popular objects in brand new patterns.

TILES THAT FIT OFF THE WALL We are happy to present two new tile patterns designed by Emma von Brömssen. 'Folkloria' and 'Back to square one' both come in two colours; terracotta and grey.

THE KIDS ARE GROWING BIGGER Last season we launched 'Tiny House of Rym' our first collection for children. Now we follow up the success with beautiful jacquard woven blanket 'Snuggler's paradise'. It comes in two different designs; 'Birdie nam nam' by Cecilia Pettersson and 'Eternal sunset' by Anna Backlund.

OLIVE WOOD ACCESSORIES Newest member of our design team, product designer Karin Strömberg has created two small but amazing objects. Eggcup 'Hatching hens' and key ring 'Drop the keys'.

This was just a small selection of the AW2015 collection. Other news worth mentioning is Elizabeth Dunker's rug 'Triangle, walk with me', and our popular tea towel 'Dry it out' in two new patterns. And of course many, many other lovely items.

FLAGSHIP STORE House of Rym, Hornsgatan 73, Stockholm.
