Today is the final day for subscribing to shares in aXichem's rights issue

Today, Wednesday March 22, is the last subscription day for participation in aXichem's rights issue of up to SEK 49.6 million. The subscription price for a new share is SEK 7 and the purpose of the issue is primarily to finance investments in stock, production and marketing of the company's products aXivite and aXiphen, both of which are expected to increase their sales significantly in the coming years.

The notification can be submitted directly to the issuing institution Nordic Issuing (<https://nordic-issuing.se/aktuella-uppdrag/axichem-ab-publ/>) or via the investor's own bank. However, some banks may have closed the possibility to participate in the offer at an earlier time.

The prospectus, which contains complete terms, conditions and instructions, is available on the Company's, Nordic Issuing AB's and Västra Hamnen Corporate Finance AB's respective websites (www.axichem.com, www.nordic-issuing.se, www.vhcorp.se). The prospectus is also available on the Finansinspektionen's website (www.fi.se).

About aXichem

aXichem develops, patents and markets natural analogue industrial chemicals, i.e., synthetically produced substances that have similar and comparable properties to natural substances. The company's first product is phenylcapsaicin, which the company commercializes under two brands, aXiphen® and aXivite®, as an ingredient in animal feed and dietary supplements, respectively. The business is divided into three market areas with different applications for phenylcapsaicin: as an ingredient in feed for poultry, such as chicken and turkey; as an ingredient in food supplements for gut health, weight control and sports and exercise; and as an ingredient in food supplements for the bio-enhancement of curcumin and melatonin. aXichem is listed on the Nasdaq First North Growth Market. More information is available at www.axichem.com.
