Timo Luhtaniemi leaves Inwido

After ten very successful years, Inwido's Managing Director in Finland, Timo Luhtaniemi, has decided to leave the company. Timo will remain in his current role until a new MD has started.

"During Timo's time at the helm of the company, Inwido Finland evolved to become the undisputed market leader in the Finnish market both in terms of size and profitability. Meanwhile, the business area has established itself as one of the best contributors to Inwido's overall success in the European market", says Håkan Jeppsson, President and CEO of Inwido and continues; "I want to thank Timo for all his contributions during his time in the company and wish him good luck in the future."

Timo Luhtaniemi will remain as MD and business area manager for Inwido Finland until a successor is in place. The search for a new Managing Director has begun.
