PRESS RELEASE

Wihlborgs appoints new Regional Director in Lund

Wihlborgs has appointed Maria Ivarsson as the new Regional Director in Lund. She will take office on 5 March.

Since 2014, Maria Ivarsson has worked as the Head of Market Area for property management at Riksbyggen in Lund, with responsibility for southern and central Skåne. Previously, she worked in the staffing industry, including as Head of Business Area, Southern Region at Manpower.

In her role as Regional Director for Wihlborgs in Lund, Maria will be responsible for a property portfolio of 200,000 m² with a value of SEK 6.5 billion, and approximately fifteen employees.

“Lund is an attractive market with exciting development plans. As Regional Director, Maria will have an important role as regards ensuring that Wihlborgs utilises future business opportunities in the best way. Her sound leadership experience and strong focus on business will be a valuable asset for us,” says Anders Jarl, CEO of Wihlborgs Fastigheter.

“I look forward to facing an increasingly exciting and dynamic property market together with the Wihlborgs team in Lund. Pursuing the development of existing customer relations and property portfolios while raising our sights towards new business and future stakeholders feels like a tremendously stimulating task,” Maria Ivarsson says.
