PRESS RELEASE

Wihlborgs — one of Sweden's best workplaces

On Monday evening, the Great Place to Work organisation presented its list of Sweden's Best Workplaces 2018. Wihlborgs was ranked 20 in the category for medium-sized companies in Sweden and is also the best company in Skåne in the class.

Wihlborgs works strategically to create job satisfaction both for employees and for tenants. Committed and happy employees mean we gain much better results in our operations.

"The fact that we are included on the list of Sweden's best workplaces is a fine acknowledgement of the commitment and friendship we have at Wihlborgs. These factors also contribute to the success of our business. If you are proud of the company and satisfied with your workplace, then you are usually more motivated to provide something extra for customers and partners. We are delighted that our workplace and our community has been showcased in this way," says Anna Nambord, Director of HR and CSR at Wihlborgs Fastigheter.

"In employee surveys, 98 percent of our employees say they are proud of informing other people that they work at Wihlborgs. A similar number say they are happy to recommend Wihlborgs' products and services."

"There are naturally areas where more work is needed. Even if we are now best in Skåne and ranked 20 among Sweden's medium-sized companies, we will continue to strive to become even better. We can never stop — we need to constantly develop the company and its employees."

Great Place to Work is an international survey and consultancy firm, which helps organisations evaluate and develop their workplace culture.
