PRESS RELEASE

Changes to the Wihlborgs Group Management Team

Wihlborg's Regional Director in Helsingborg, Magnus Lambertsson, is leaving the Group Management Team after six years in the role and will, as of 1 October, transition into a new position as Business Developer with a particular focus on market development and leasing. The change is part of Wihlborg's efforts to further strengthen its market presence and its long-term work to develop the right solutions for our customers.

The future organisation of the Helsingborg operations will be presented at a later stage.

“During his years as Regional Director, Magnus Lambertsson has played an important role in developing the business and creating a stable foundation for continued growth in Helsingborg. In his new role, we will benefit even more from his strong market knowledge and have better opportunities to create impact through a dedicated focus on these areas,” says Ulrika Hallengren, CEO of Wihlborgs.
