

Faux flowers for superyacht Ace

Press Release: 01/07/2014

For immediate release

Floriture, a Bristol based specialist in handcrafted artificial and silk flowers recently completed a bespoke installation for the 87m motor yacht, Ace in Barcelona.

The white glove installation was carried out over a period of a week with displays designed specifically for the project.

The majority of the displays were created beforehand in the UK and shipped to the site to minimise disruption to owners and crew.

Working in conjunction with the yacht's designer Andrew Winch Designs, Floriture created a variety of displays to fit and enhance the beautiful interior of the Lurssen superyacht.

Alex Whitfield of Floriture spoke to Yachting Pages, a specialist in products and services for the superyacht industry and explained, "From 2.5m displays on the main deck to bedside table arrangements in the guest suites, the scheme flowed effortlessly from room to room. It was a fantastic project to work on with results that far exceeded the expectations and the highest standards of our client."
