PRESS RELEASE

Mr Green moves headquarters and technology development to Epicenter in Stockholm

Epicenter in the city of Stockholm offers a world class innovation environment for fast growing digital companies. In the first quarter of 2018, Mr Green will unite its Stockholm based functions in this creative environment.

Mr Green's headquarters and technology development are today situated at different locations in the city of Stockholm. Epicenter provides Mr Green with an inspiring office space for about 110 persons. Today, the headquarters has six employees and the technology development about 70 employees. The new office space also provides space for temporary consultants.

"Epicenter is the perfect environment for Mr Green", says Per Norman, CEO of Mr Green & Co. "We are an innovative, fast growing company and the creative setting is of importance to our employees and of course when recruiting new talents. Epicenter is also a perfect place for networking and the establishment of new collaborations."

"We are happy that Mr Green has joined us and our ecosystem", says Fredric Kaijser at Epicenter. "We supercharge co-creation, innovation and knowledge by providing a great opportunity space for large corporations and fast growing digital companies. Therefore, we welcome Mr Green to Stockholm's first Digital Innovation House located in the heart of the city and Sweden's digital landscape."

Mr Green's office space is about 1,200 square meters. Epicenter is located at Mäster Samuelsgatan 36 in Stockholm.
