MRG employees acknowledged to be a cut above the rest

"A cut above the rest" is MRG's corporate value and at the industry event iGaming Idol Awards 2018 four employees were awarded for their outstanding performance.

The iGaming Idol Awards celebrates the individual talent of the industry. It is the only event in the industry which focuses on the individuals. The candidates are singled out through a nomination process with a live jury of experts who looks for the individuals who have excelled in their area of expertise over the past year.

Internal Leadership Program

MRG has over the past two years established an internal Leadership Program, focusing on building the best management teams in the industry. The program, along with a strong focus on its corporate value, resulted in thirteen employees shortlisted at the iGaming Idol Awards 2018. Of those, six made it to the final and four won their categories.

MRG's employees won in the following categories;

Manager Idol of the Year – Ludvig Philip, Head of Lifecycle Management
Affiliate Manager Idol of the Year – Eoin Findlay, Affiliates Account Manager
Payment Idol of the Year – David Borg, Senior QA Engineer
Office Manager Idol of the Year – Arpad Hovrat, Office Manager Malta

These prestigious awards prove that we attract and retain the best talents in the industry, says Per Norman, CEO of MRG. Having employees that are a cut above the rest is one of our most powerful tools in delivering on our growth strategy and to create innovative digital entertainment.
