

Eniro Group's CFO to leave at the beginning of the second quarter of 2027

Eniro Group AB (publ) announces that the Group's CFO, Mario von Dahn, has decided to leave the company at the beginning of the second quarter of 2027. A process to recruit a successor will begin immediately.

Mario von Dahn, who has served as CFO of Eniro Group and as a member of the Group Management Team since August 2025, will continue in his current role until April 2027.

"I would like to thank Mario for his work and contributions during his time at Eniro, where he has, among other things, helped develop the Group's finance function. Mario will remain in his role until April 2027, which provides us with good conditions for an orderly handover," says Hosni Teque-Omeirat, President and CEO of Eniro.

"It has been incredibly exciting and rewarding to be part of this period, together with so many talented and committed employees and colleagues. This period has been characterized by acquisitions, integrations and the streamlining of Eniro's operations, which have been important steps in the company's continued development. I am proud to have been part of this," says Mario von Dahn.
