CYPRUS AIRWAYS SETS UP IN-HOUSE AIRBUS TRAINING THANKS TO TOTAL AOC

Cyprus Airways has set up an Airbus in-house training facility, thanks in part to the administrative excellence of Total AOC.

The airline approached Total AOC at the start of 2014 following an industry recommendation, with a view to securing drafts for everything required for ATO setup, including course materials, manuals, course structures, safety management and quality control.

Cyprus Airways Head of Training Theodoros Ioannides says: "Total AOC did a very good job – everything was carried out according to the deadlines we set for the project, and they did not disappoint."

Ioannides adds: "Thanks to their work, we now have everything we need to meet the legal requirements. They completely fulfilled our expectations and we are very satisfied with the end result."

Cyprus Airways is the national carrier of Cyprus. Based at a hub in Larnaca, the company operates an all-A320 fleet and flies to destinations in Europe, Russia and the Middle East.
