Spotlight welcomes Alltainer

Today is the first day of trading for Alltainer, they sell furnished sea containers that can be used for homes, for example. It is the first company in the industrial sector to be listed on the Spotlight Stock Market this year.

Alltainer manufacture, market and sell containers to be used as homes, bars and sanitation facilities. All standard solutions are manufactured by Alltainer in its own factory in Asia.

The company's largest market is the US, but containers are also sold in Sweden and the rest of Europe.

Jakob Kesje, CEO Alltainer says "With the listing of Alltainer, we will receive valuable financing that will contribute to increased production volumes as well as profitability. At the same time, Alltainer can offer the investors a share in a company, where many milestones already have been passed. Volume sales is our next milestone. The listing will also make Alltainer more visible on the market, both in terms of company attractiveness as well as promoting our products. In the upcoming years we invite our investors to join us on an exciting journey, welcome aboard."

The offer was subscribed for a total of about SEK 10.3 million, which corresponds to a subscription rate of 129%.

"We are thrilled to have a company with such an innovative business idea joining Spotlight Stock Market and look forward to see what the future holds", says Emelie Jarnesten, Head of Business Operations Spotlight.
