

21shares godkänt som ny emittent av ETP:er på Spotlight Stock Market/21shares approved as new issuer of ETPs on Spotlight Stock Market

(For English version, please see below)

Spotlight Stock Market har godkänt 21shares x FalconX Limited, som ny emittent av ETP:er på marknadsplatsen. 21shares x FalconX Limited är ett SPV-bolag (Special Purpose Vehicle) som ägs av 21shares, en ledande global emittent av ETP:er med digitala underliggande tillgångar. De första instrumenten från 21shares som kan handlas på Spotlight Stock Market är planerade att presenteras inom kort.

”Vi är glada över att ansluta oss till Spotlight Stock Market som en ny emittent och att utöka 21shares erbjudande på den nordiska marknaden. Spotlights snabba tillväxt och engagemang för att få sitt ETP-segment att växa gör det till ett naturligt hem för vår nya SPV-arkitektur. Vi ser fram emot att ta nästa generation finansiella instrument till marknadsplatsen och att ge lokala investerare tillgång till sömlösa noterade innovativa marknadsstrategier”, säger Duncan Moir, President och Chief Investment Officer för 21shares.

21shares grundades 2018 i Schweiz och lanserade samma år den första krypto-ETP:n, HODL, på SIX Swiss Exchange. 2025 köptes 21shares upp av FalconX en amerikansk så kallad prime broker för digitala tillgångar. Hittills har 21shares emitterat över 60 olika ETP:er globalt och förvaltar totalt tillgångar med ett marknadsvärde som överstiger 6,5 miljarder USD.

”Vi är glada och stolta över att kunna välkomna en så etablerad, framgångsrik och nyskapande emittent som 21shares till vårt snabbt växande ETP-segment. Sedan segmentet lanserades i slutet av 2024 har det vuxit från 19 instrument till över 80 och har dragit till sig mycket intresse från marknaden med höga handelsvolymen. Med 21shares som ny emittent kan både segmentet och hela Spotlight Stock Market ta nästa steg som en ännu mer innovativ marknadplats”, säger Spotlight Stock Markets VD Peter Gönczi.

21shares approved as new issuer of ETPs on Spotlight Stock Market

Spotlight Stock Market has approved 21shares x FalconX Limited as a new issuer of ETPs on the marketplace. 21shares x FalconX Limited is a dedicated special purpose vehicle (SPV) established by 21shares, a leading global issuer of digital asset ETPs, and its first instruments to be listed for trade on Spotlight Stock Market are expected to be announced shortly.

“We are thrilled to join Spotlight Stock Market as a new issuer and expand 21shares’ product pipeline in the Nordic market. Spotlight’s rapid growth and commitment to growing its ETP segment make it a natural home for our new SPV architecture. We look forward to bringing our next-generation instruments on the exchange and providing local investors with seamless, exchange-listed access to innovative market strategies,” said Duncan Moir, President and Chief Investment Officer at 21shares.

21shares was founded in Switzerland in 2018 and issued its first crypto ETP, HODL, in the same year on SIX Swiss Exchange. In 2025, 21shares was acquired by the US based digital asset prime broker FalconX. To date, 21shares has issued over 60 different ETPs globally with total assets under management of approximately USD 6.5 billion.

“We are happy and proud to welcome such an established, successful and innovative issuer as 21shares to our rapidly growing ETP segment. Since this segment was launched at the end of 2024, it has grown from 19 instruments to over 80 and has attracted much attention from the market with increasing volumes of trade. With 21shares as a new issuer, the segment and the entire Spotlight Stock Market can take its next step as an even more innovative marketplace”, Spotlight Group and Spotlight Stock Market CEO Peter Gönczi says.
