

Getinge announces its continued commitment to the European Association for Cardio-Thoracic Surgery (EACTS) Annual Meeting.

October 10, 2018

Milan, Italy

Getinge, a leading global provider of innovative medical technology, announces its commitment to the European Association for Cardio-Thoracic Surgery (EACTS) 32nd Annual Meeting. This event will take place in Milan, Italy from October 18 - 20, 2018.

“Getinge has more than 40 years experience in this field and working closely with our customers, we have a shared goal of advancing patient care. This annual event is an opportunity to present the complete portfolio in the Cardio-Thoracic Surgery segment, including Cardiohelp, Cardiosave and Endoscopic Vessel Harvesting. We are also excited to present our next generation Heart-Lung Machine HL 40*. HL 40* is inspired by perfusionists with enhanced usability, safety and flexibility. In addition to the booth Getinge will host a symposia on Physician Assistant in Cardiovascular Surgery – sharing best practices and experiences. This event will take place on Thursday October 18, 2018.” shared Markus Stirner-Schilling, Senior Director, Acute Care Therapies, Global Commercial Operations.

This meeting is the largest cardio-thoracic meeting in the world focusing on scientific developments and research in the following specialities: acquired cardiac disease, congenital heart disease, vascular disease and thoracic disease.
