

Getinge presents ICU portfolio and supports education at the International Symposium on Intensive Care and Emergency Medicine.

1 March 2019

Brussels

Getinge, a leading global provider of innovative medical technology, announces today its continuous commitment to ISICEM.

“As a major sponsor, Getinge will take the opportunity to present intensive care unit (ICU) products focusing on ICU ventilation, extracorporeal life support (ECLS) and advanced monitoring devices. Getinge will also participate and sponsor educational activities including two symposia. Also new this year, visitors can pre-book hands-on sessions for ECMO and ventilation and also participate in the simulation center,” shared Markus Stirner-Schilling, Senior Director, Acute Care Therapies, Global Commercial Operations.

The symposia; “can we do better for ARDS patients” will take place on Wednesday March 20th and the second symposia on “current dilemma between evidence based vs. personalized medicine” will take place the following day, Thursday March 21st.

It is anticipated that over 6,000 physicians, nurses and healthcare professionals with a focus on critical care or emergency medicine, from over 100 countries worldwide will attend this international meeting.

About Getinge at ISICEM:

Registered visitors are invited to visit Getinge on booth 2.32-33-34-35 from March 19th – 22nd at Square, Brussels Meeting Centre, Brussels, Belgium.
