

Write-down of deferred tax assets in Clavister in the fourth quarter

Örnsköldsvik, Sweden, January 31, 2020. The Board of Directors of Clavister Holding AB decided today to write down a deferred tax receivable in Clavister AB of total SEK 29.0 million. The non-cash-flow impairment charge is charged to the result in the last quarter of 2019. The annual impairment test has taken into account earnings trend and updated forecasts over the coming five years of the Group.

The result of the impairment test involves an adjustment of the Group's deferred tax assets from SEK 76.9 million to SEK 47.9 million, which reduces the Group's equity. The final figures will be presented in the Q4 2019 report on 20 February 2020.
