Skanska builds new high school in Issaquah, Washington, USA for USD 99M, about SEK 900M

Skanska has signed a contract with the Issaquah School District for the Issaquah New High School Project in Issaquah, Washington, USA. The contract is worth USD 99M, about SEK 900M, which will be included in the US order bookings for the first quarter of 2026.

The project consists of phase one construction of the new Issaquah High School, including a covered parking garage, an athletic field, and site amenities. Phase one of the project will also feature significant right-of-way work to improve public infrastructure and access.

Work will begin in April 2026 and is expected to be completed in August 2027.
