

Storetec beats national competition to win Document Manager award for second year.

Storetec, a UK award winning document scanning specialist, has beaten the competition to win the prestigious Document Manager BPO/Outsourcing/Bureau Business of the Year for two consecutive years.

The Document Manager awards took place on the 23rd October at the Hotel Russell in London's Russell Square. The awards takes place annually, attracting leading national companies and recognising a variety of disciplines. They reward companies and products in the Document, Records and Content Management, Imaging and Capture Industry and are decided on by a public vote.

Storetec received nominations for three different awards this year, including Company of the Year, BPO/Outsourcing/Bureau Business of the Year and Service/Support Company of the Year.

David Wilkinson, Sales Director, for Storetec expresses his delight at winning saying:

"Winning this award for the second year running is an amazing achievement. We know we provide a high quality service to our clients and to have them back us so publicly is a thorough endorsement of our client first philosophy. To be named the best Outsourced Scanning Bureau in the country is brilliant. It tells us that the effort and commitment our staff deliver on a daily basis is recognised and appreciated. I'd like to say a big thank you to all of our clients who took the time to vote for us."

Neil Robson, Managing Director expresses his excitement to win for a second year in a row by saying:

"We are delighted at the support we have received from the market place which has seen us once again, lift the prestigious BPO/Outsourcing/Bureau Business of the Year Award. This is vindication of the hard work of all at Storetec Services who continue to push the boundaries of brilliant customer service."

Storetec provides a wide range of document scanning and storage solutions, with more than 650 million documents currently being stored electronically on their own online document management system. Storetec pride themselves on tailoring their services to each client allowing bespoke packages.
