

Bricknode CEO to take part in panel discussions during Nordic Post Trade Conference in Norway

Bricknode (www.bricknode.com) will participate as a partner on the Nordic Post Trade Conference in Oslo, Norway between the 27th – 28th of October.

STOCKHOLM, 21st of October 2015

Bricknode develops and offers a cloud based financial business platform including modules like back office, financial advisory, account management, customer portal, real time trading and insurance.

Bricknode will attend the Nordic Post Trade Conference in Oslo, Norway between the 27th – 28th of October as a partner. Jack Johansson, CEO of Bricknode, will participate in panel discussions regarding internationalization and consolidation in the financial market, risk and challenges of the future and important business opportunities/focus areas.

For more information about the conference, please click here.

About Bricknode AB

Bricknode is a young innovative company focusing on financial software. Our mission is to empower our business partners to deliver the best financial products to their end customers and partners in the most efficient way possible.

Bricknode Financial Systems is a cloud-based platform, which makes it possible for securities firms and other financial institutions to establish themselves online.

Contact information

Stefan Willebrand, Executive Chairman

Bricknode AB

stefan@bricknode.com