

Advenica receives order worth 44,5 MSEK from a Swedish authority

Advenica has received an order from a Swedish authority within the total defence regarding maintenance and management. The contract covers a period of three years and is worth 44,5 MSEK in total.

Advenica has secured a contract from a Swedish authority within the total defence that extends over a three-year period. The deal covers maintenance and management of encryption systems, development environment as well as peripheral equipment. The assignment also covers market and industry monitoring related to the product area.

The long-term order covers both previously delivered and future encryption systems with the purpose of securing high availability and long lifespan. The order is delivered as a part of Advenica's Designhouse business and will be delivered ongoing until Q4 2028.

This order is a testament to both the confidence our authority customer puts in us and the deep collaboration we have built over the years. We look forward to continuing our role in protecting the most important information within the total defence for many years to come.

Marie Bengtsson, CEO at Advenica
