

Advenica wins deal worth 230 MSEK

Advenica has won an order from a Swedish authority regarding continued development of an encryption product. The contract covers a period of four years and is worth 230 MSEK. Delivery is made continuously until 2029.

Advenica is a well-established and trusted supplier of cybersecurity solutions for national security since decades, both in Sweden and internationally. The nature of these customers information demands high assurance solutions from trusted partners.

A long-term order has now been received from a Swedish authority within the total defence for continued development of an encryption product. Project delivery is made ongoing until Q4 2029 as part of Advenica's Designhouse business.

We take pride in the long-term trust placed in us to develop and ultimately deliver next-generation encryption solutions for the total defence, at a time when it is of the utmost importance that the most sensitive information remains protected.

Marie Bengtsson, CEO at Advenica
