

Advenica wins order worth 4 MSEK from Northern European authority

Advenica has won an order regarding renewal of maintenance and support agreement and development hours from a Northern European authority. The order is worth 4 MSEK.

Advenica has a strong product offer within network segmentation and is well-known for its service-level. The order now secured relates to previously delivered equipment and extends the cooperation with the customer. In addition to a 3-year MSA extension, the order contains hours for continued development and consulting.

Advenica has now received an order from a Northern European authority regarding MSA renewal and development hours. The order will be delivered immediately.

We are pleased for the long-term trust shown by the customer and look forward to continued cooperation over the coming years.
