Advenica wins order worth 18 million SEK from Swedish authority

Advenica has won a new sub-assignment linked to an existing project within its Designhouse business, valued at SEK 18 million.

For decades, Advenica has been a well-established and trusted supplier of cybersecurity solutions to authorities within national security, both in Sweden and internationally. These are customers whose operations require high-assurance solutions to protect the most sensitive information.

A supplementary order relating to an ongoing development project has now been received. The order will be delivered on a continuous basis during 2027 and 2028.

> Securing an expanded assignment within an ongoing project is a strong testament to our excellent collaboration with the customer. We look forward to commencing the work.
