

SSAB appoints Leena Craelius as acting CFO

Leena Craelius has been appointed acting CFO at SSAB. She has long experience of the steel industry and has held several senior positions at SSAB. She will take up her new position on November 1, 2021.

Leena Craelius is currently vice president of Finance, Controlling and IT at SSAB Europe. She has held several senior positions within Finance and Controlling at SSAB. She joined Rautaruukki in 2005 and has also worked for SSAB Special Steels.

“I’m very pleased to welcome Leena to her new job. She has extensive experience of working at SSAB and I know she will make a good contribution to SSAB’s development in her new role,” says Martin Lindqvist, President and CEO of SSAB.

“I’m really looking forward to taking on this new challenge and to supporting the company in our journey toward a fossil-free and industry-leading company,” says Leena Craelius.

Leena Craelius holds an MBA in Finance from Helsinki School of Economics and a BBA in International Business from Häme University of Applied Sciences.
