

SSAB, LKAB and Vattenfall in joint project for a future fossil-free Sweden

Media invitation

SSAB, LKAB and Vattenfall cordially invite the media to a joint press conference to be held on Monday April 4, 2016 starting at 10am CET to announce a joint project that can play an important role in a future fossil-free Sweden. The conference will be hosted by Martin Lindqvist, CEO and President of SSAB, Jan Moström, President and Group CEO at LKAB, and Magnus Hall, President and CEO at Vattenfall. The Minister for Enterprise and Innovation Mikael Damberg will also attend.

The press conference will be in English and will also be webcast live on SSAB's website at ssab.com. The conference can also be followed by telephone.

Conference address and time:

Monday April 4 starting at 10am CET. World Trade Center (WTC) Stockholm, Kungsbron 1, Manhattan conference room.

Telephone:

UK: +442033645374

SE: +46850556474

US: +18557532230

Link to webcast: <http://edge.media-server.com/m/p/75y3o5a3>

For more information, please contact:

Media: Viktoria Karsberg, Head of External Communications, viktoria.karsberg@ssab.com, +46 8 454 5734

SSAB is a Nordic and US-based steel company. SSAB offers value added products and services developed in close cooperation with its customers to create a stronger, lighter and more sustainable world. SSAB has employees in over 50 countries. SSAB has production facilities in Sweden, Finland and the US. SSAB is listed on the Nasdaq OMX Nordic Exchange in Stockholm and has a secondary listing on the Nasdaq OMX in Helsinki. www.ssab.com.