

Twelve Emergency Nurses to be Inducted into Academy of Emergency Nursing

Prestigious honor from Emergency Nurses Association recognizes unparalleled dedication

(March 24, 2015) – The Emergency Nurses Association (ENA) today announced 12 emergency nurses will be inducted into the Academy of Emergency Nursing (AEN). AEN honors nurses who have made enduring, substantial contributions to emergency nursing and who continue to advance the profession and provide visionary leadership to ENA.

The candidates for induction, who will be admitted to AEN as Fellows, have made significant contributions to emergency nursing that go above and beyond being an outstanding nurse and a devoted ENA member.

"AEN Fellows have made, and will continue to make, a lasting impact on emergency nursing," said ENA President Matthew F. Powers, MS, BSN, RN, MICP, CEN. "Their many years of service and innovation in emergency nursing have earned them this prestigious honor. We look forward to celebrating their achievements at Emergency Nursing 2015 this fall and graciously thank them for their contributions to our profession."
