

Press release

12/2020

Stockholm

29 May 2020

Fire in crushing station at Boliden Kevitsa

During last night a fire occurred in the building for primary crushing in Boliden's mine Kevitsa, located in Finnish Lapland. No person were injured and the extinguishing work are now completed. The damages are extensive and investigations are initiated with the aim of assessing which actions are necessary to resume operations. As a result, production at the concentrating plant are halted until further notice, mining production is unaffected.

For further information, please contact:

Klas Nilsson, Director Group Communications, phone: +46 70 453 65 88