

THE HUT

Gotessons launches a new acoustic and cozy office furniture. The modern and innovative HUT. The HUT marks the beginning of the collaboration between the renowned Finnish Architect company Workspace & Gotessons.

Gotessons sales director, John de Boer ads “The HUT´ s simple and basic lines seems inspired by the classic Monopoly giving a timeless look at the popular and practical room within a room concept, placed in a raw the Huts can serve different purposes, as individual work stations, small meeting rooms, telephone areas or more informal relax spaces. It was this versatile kind of product we were looking for when we took on The Hut idea”. The HUT’s inner & outer material is fabric (many choices) and the insulation material has excellent acoustic properties.

The HUT was launched at stand C- 091 in Hall 6 at Orgatec, and are available for immediate orders.
