Michiel Havermans, SVP Cloetta International, to leave Cloetta

Stockholm, Sweden – Cloetta, Northern Europe's leading confectionery company, announces that Michiel Havermans, Senior Vice President Cloetta International, and member of the Group Management Team, has decided to leave Cloetta at the beginning of June 2025 after seven years at the company.

"I would like to thank Michiel for his contribution to the development of Cloetta during the past years. He has during our joint time in the Group Management Team been a passionate team player and has together with his team developed our international and UK business. I would sincerely like to thank Michiel for his dedication to Cloetta over the past seven years and wish him all the best in his new challenges outside our company.", says Katarina Tell, President and CEO.

"I have enjoyed my time at Cloetta and I'm proud of the work done and results achieved in International Markets and the UK during my time at the company." says Michiel Havermans, outgoing SVP Cloetta International.

Cloetta will provide an update on the long-term solution for Michiel's responsibilities in due time, while he continues in his role for two more months.
