The jury was impressed by Crunchfish Digital Cash as a software-based, tamper-resistant solution.

Crunchfish won the category Outstanding Advancement in Digital Currency at the Digital Currency Awards on May 18th at the Digital Currency Conference in Mexico City for its software-based Digital Cash solution. The award recognizes a company that has made a huge impression in the space with new and innovative services and transformed the way digital currency is experienced.

"We are extremely proud of this award for Crunchfish Digital Cash. Crunchfish is pioneering software-based offline payments for CBDC and payments applications. Swedish soccer star Zlatan Ibrahimovic once said of another player "What Carew does with a football, I can do with an orange". The picture travesty points out the key differentiator "What the competition does in hardware, Crunchfish can do in software"', says Joachim Samuelsson.

Crunchfish is represented at the conference by CEO Joachim Samuelsson, who participates in a panel on offline payments and presents on the theme Central Banks should modernize payments. Who else would?
