The twelfth Future Energy Forum "Creating Our Future" is a call to action. In addition to the expert plenary sessions, keynotes, and workshops made up of world-class experts, five working sessions on various chapters of the Manifesto of Principles and Values will also take place throughout the two days of the conference. These sessions are clustered around the main focal points of the past eleven Future Energy Forums, namely New Business Models & Financing, Technology, Education, Participation & Collaboration, Urban Future & Mobility and Transparency & Participation – Politics, Economy & Power.

Furthermore, the Manifesto of Values and Principles draft will be discussed during each working table session benefiting from the unique opportunity the Astana EXPO-2017 offers in terms of concentrating knowledge, expertise and experience from all over the globe and the Republic of Kazakhstan. During the closing ceremony of the Future Energy Forum on September 5th, Steering Committee members will deliver the Manifesto draft to Akhmetzhan Yessimov, National Company Chairman of the Board Astana EXPO-2017.

The event is free of charge; visit www.futureenergyforum.org to register.
