

Balco Group appoints Viktor Arvidsson as new CFO and Head of Investor Relations

Balco Group has appointed Viktor Arvidsson as its new CFO and Head of Investor Relations. He will assume his position no later than Q1 2026 and will also join the Group Management Team.

Viktor has a solid background in finance and leadership. He most recently served as Finance Director at Elitfönster, part of the Inwido Group. Prior to that, he had a long career at Swedish Match, where he held various senior management positions in finance at both company and divisional level.

“We are very pleased to welcome Viktor to Balco Group. His experience from listed and manufacturing companies with strong roots in Småland, combined with his international background and proven ability to lead transformation and profitability initiatives, makes him a valuable addition to our management team and well suited to contribute to our continued development,” says Camilla Ekdahl, CEO of Balco Group.
