

Balco Group appoints Andreas Lindberg as Director of Business Development

Balco Group has appointed Andreas Lindberg as Director of Business Development. He will assume the position on November 1, 2025, and will at the same time join the Group Management Team. Andreas will also be responsible for the Group's IT.

Andreas brings extensive experience from senior leadership roles in industry, sales, and business development. Most recently, he served as Managing Director of Wilo Nordic, where he successfully drove profitable growth in the Nordic organization. He has previously held senior management positions at ProfilGruppen, CTC Norway, and Sapa.

"Andreas combines a strategic mindset with solid operational experience. His ability to build organizations and develop new offerings will play an important role in strengthening Balco Group's market position and creating additional value for our customers," says Camilla Ekdahl, CEO of Balco Group.
