

Jessica Eberhagen new CFO at Safeture

Safeture AB, a SaaS (Software as a Service) company in Lund, Sweden, today announced the appointment of Jessica Eberhagen as the new CFO, effective January 1st. Jessica Eberhagen will have responsibility for strategic financial planning, leading day-to-day operations within the areas of finance, and will be a key member of the executive team.

Safeture has developed a platform that helps more than 4,000 companies, organizations, and authorities create security for their employees, no matter where they are, and fulfill their duty of care. Safeture's technical solution is mainly sold through partners worldwide who work with global incident management in security or healthcare. Falck, Exlog, SPS, and insurance giant Chubb are some of Safeture's most important customers.

Jessica Eberhagen joins Safeture with broad financial experience from various business controller- and leadership positions in multinational companies operating in a number of different industries. Experience spans areas such as accounting, controlling, consolidation, KPI management, reporting, pricing, strategic financial planning, business development, and company integration management.

"I am thrilled and very happy to join the fantastic Safeture team where I will be focusing on scaling the business to support the team, partners, customers and the company as a whole in the path of growth", Jessica Eberhagen comments.

Jessica Eberhagen has a Master of Science in Business Administration, School of Economics & Management, Lund University, Lund, Sweden.
