Lundin Mining Pre-Announces Items Impacting the Fourth Quarter and Full Year 2025 Results

Vancouver, January 28, 2026 (TSX: LUN; Nasdaq Stockholm: LUMI) Lundin Mining Corporation ("Lundin Mining" or the "Company") is pre-announcing certain items impacting the Company's earnings, adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("adjusted EBITDA")¹, adjusted earnings¹ and adjusted earnings per share¹ for the three months ending December 31, 2025. Unless otherwise stated, dollar amounts are presented in United States dollars ("USD") and are unaudited.

Revenue and Provisional Pricing Adjustments

Revenue in the fourth quarter 2025 is expected to be positively impacted by unaudited provisional pricing adjustments on prior period concentrate sales of approximately $83 million on a pre-tax basis. These adjustments primarily include upward adjustments in relation to prior period copper and gold sales.

Foreign Exchange and Derivatives

Items of significant impact in the fourth quarter 2025 are expected to include unaudited realized losses on commodity derivative contracts of approximately $16 million, primarily related to gold collar contracts. Unaudited realized foreign exchange losses in the fourth quarter 2025 are not expected to be significant.

In the fourth quarter 2025 the Company is expected to recognize certain non-cash items that will impact the Company's earnings but not adjusted EBITDA, adjusted earnings or adjusted earnings per share. These include an unaudited unrealized gain of approximately $8 million on a pre-tax basis related to the mark-to-market valuation of the Company's unexpired derivative contracts, primarily due to strengthening Chilean peso against the USD during the quarter. Unaudited unrealized foreign exchange losses are not expected to be significant.

Other Items

The Company anticipates to recognize other unaudited significant items impacting the fourth quarter 2025 earnings from continuing operations totaling a net positive impact to earnings of approximately $450 million. The items include a non-cash deferred tax recovery at Caserones following a reassessment of the estimated utilization of accumulated tax losses, partially offset by a non-cash write-down of long-term stockpile inventories at Chapada as a result of mine plan changes deprioritizing the timing of processing of stockpiles. These amounts will be excluded from adjusted EBITDA, adjusted earnings, and adjusted earnings per share.

Earnings from discontinued operations in the fourth quarter 2025 are expected to be positively impacted by unaudited realized and unrealized gains on contingent consideration related to the sale of the European operations and an unaudited non-cash reversal of impairment at Eagle, totaling approximately $100 million. These amounts will be excluded from adjusted EBITDA, adjusted earnings, and adjusted earnings per share.

Cautionary Statement on Forward-Looking Information

Certain of the statements made and information contained herein are "forward-looking information" within the meaning of applicable Canadian securities laws. All statements other than statements of historical facts included in this document constitute forward-looking information, including but not limited to statements regarding the Company's financial results, impacts thereto and the accounting therefor; expected items of significant impact in the fourth quarter and annual results, and the anticipated impact on the Company's revenue, earnings, adjusted EBITDA, adjusted earnings and adjusted earnings per share; expected costs; tax matters and utilization of tax recovery; anticipated market rates of metals, currency exchange rates, and interest rates; timing of future disclosures; the Company's plans, prospects and business strategies; and expectations for other economic, business, and/or competitive factors. Words such as "believe", "expect", "anticipate", "contemplate", "target", "plan", "goal", "aim", "intend", "continue", "budget", "estimate", "may", "will", "can", "could", "should", "schedule" and similar expressions identify forward-looking information.

Forward-looking information is necessarily based upon various estimates and assumptions including, without limitation, the expectations and beliefs of management, including that the Company can access financing, appropriate equipment and sufficient labour; assumed and future prices of copper, gold, zinc, nickel and other metals; anticipated costs; ability to achieve goals; the prompt and effective integration of acquisitions and the realization of synergies and economies of scale in connection therewith; that the political environment in which the Company operates will continue to support the development and operation of mining projects; and assumptions related to the factors set forth below. While these factors and assumptions are considered reasonable by Lundin Mining as at the date of this document in light of management's experience and perception of current conditions and expected developments, such information is inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies. Known and unknown factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking information and undue reliance should not be placed on such information. Such factors include, but are not limited to: dependence on international market prices and demand for the metals that the Company produces; political, economic, and regulatory uncertainty in operating jurisdictions, including but not limited to those related to permitting and approvals, nationalization or expropriation without fair compensation, environmental and tailings management, labour, trade relations, and transportation; risks relating to mine closure and reclamation obligations; health and safety hazards; inherent risks of mining, not all of which related risk events are insurable; risks relating to tailings and waste management facilities; risks relating to the Company's indebtedness; challenges and conflicts that may arise in partnerships and joint operations; risks relating to development projects; risks that revenue may be significantly impacted in the event of any production stoppages or reputational damage in the jurisdictions in which the Company operates or elsewhere; the impact of global financial conditions, market volatility and inflation; business interruptions caused by critical infrastructure failures; challenges of effective water management; exposure to greater foreign exchange and capital controls, as well as political, social and economic risks as a result of the Company's operation in emerging markets; risks relating to stakeholder opposition to continued operation, further development, or new development of the Company's projects and mines; any breach or failure of information systems; risks relating to reliance on estimates of future production; risks relating to litigation and administrative proceedings which the Company may be subject to from time to time; risks relating to acquisitions or business arrangements; risks relating to competition in the industry; failure to comply with existing or new laws or changes in laws; challenges or defects in title or termination of mining or exploitation concessions; the exclusive jurisdiction of foreign courts; the outbreak of infectious diseases or viruses; risks relating to taxation changes; receipt of and ability to maintain all permits that are required for operation; minor elements contained in concentrate products; changes in the Company's relationship with its employees and contractors; the Company's Mineral Reserves and Mineral Resources which are estimates only; payment of dividends in the future; compliance with environmental, health and safety laws and regulations, including changes to such laws or regulations; asset values being subject to impairment charges; potential for conflicts of interest and public association with other Lundin Group companies or entities; interests of significant shareholders of the Company; activist shareholders and proxy solicitation firms; risks associated with climate change; the Company's common shares being subject to dilution; ability to attract and retain highly skilled employees; reliance on key personnel and reporting and oversight systems; risks relating to the Company's internal controls; counterparty and customer concentration risk; risks associated with the use of derivatives; exchange rate fluctuations; the terms of the contingent payments in respect of the completion of the sale of the Company's European assets and expectations related thereto; and other risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to those described in the "Risks and Uncertainties" section of the Company's MD&A for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025 and the "Risks and Uncertainties" section of the Company's Annual Information Form for the year ended December 31, 2024, which are available on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca under the Company's profile.

All of the forward-looking information in this document are qualified by these cautionary statements. Although the Company has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in forward-looking information, there may be other factors that cause results not to be as anticipated, estimated, forecasted or intended and readers are cautioned that the foregoing list is not exhaustive of all factors and assumptions which may have been used. Should one or more of these risks and uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those described in forward-looking information. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that forward-looking information will prove to be accurate and forward-looking information is not a guarantee of future performance. Readers are advised not to place undue reliance on forward-looking information. The forward-looking information contained herein speaks only as of the date of this document. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise forward-looking information or to explain any material difference between such and subsequent actual events, except as required by applicable law.
