

Peter Wärnbring leaves his position as CEO of Ragnars Inredningar AB and Morgana AB

Lammhults Design Group AB announces that, after four years as CEO of its subsidiaries Ragnars Inredningar AB and Morgana AB, Peter Wärnbring has decided to leave his position to pursue new opportunities outside the Group. He will continue in his role during his six-month notice period, thereby ensuring continuity and creating favourable conditions for a structured and stable handover.

The process of appointing a successor, in line with the company's operational priorities and long-term objectives, is underway. The aim is to ensure continuity while supporting the ongoing development of both the business and its employees.

The Board of Directors and Group Management wish to extend their sincere gratitude to Peter Wärnbring for his dedication and leadership over the past years.

- We truly appreciate Peter's valuable contributions and wish him success in the future. At the same time, we are now working towards a solution that best positions the company for the next stage of our development, says Susanna Hilleskog, President and CEO of Lammhults Design Group AB.
