

Will you be one of 12 million Brits driving on the wrong side of the road in Europe this summer?

20 mil

Brits are planning to drive in Europe this summer

71%

don't know the road regulations of top holiday destinations

27%

admit to previously having issues knowing where and when to park

22%

have unknowingly driven abroad in the wrong lane

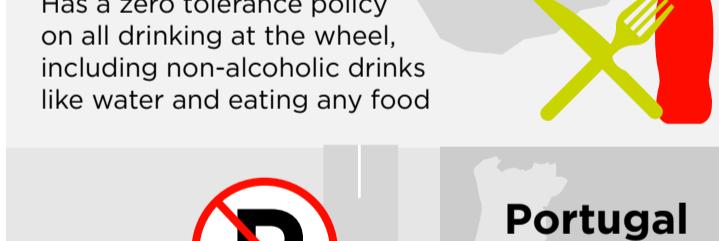

61%

of UK drivers would prefer someone else to drive when abroad

Road regulations people didn't know include:

France

All drivers are required to carry a self-test alcohol breathalyser

Scandinavia

It is illegal to drive without headlights, even in daylight

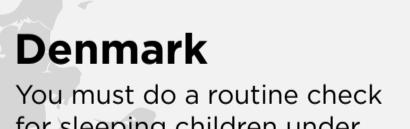

Cyprus

Has a zero tolerance policy on all drinking at the wheel, including non-alcoholic drinks like water and eating any food

Portugal

It is illegal to carry bicycles on the back of a car

Spain

In some cities cars must be parked on different sides of the road according to the day of the week

Romania

It's illegal to drive a dirty car

Denmark

You must do a routine check for sleeping children under your car every time you drive

Singapore

It's against the law for a driver to come within 50 metres of a pedestrian

Bulgaria

A second time offense of drink driving can lead to an execution

Philippines

In Manila number plates ending in 1 or 2 are can't to drive on Mondays

Bulgaria

A second time offense of drink driving can lead to an execution

Philippines

In Manila number plates ending in 1 or 2 are can't to drive on Mondays