

T. Jon Mayer

Head of exterior design

T. Jon is an eleven-year company veteran and has been instrumental in the development of Volvo Cars' design language over the past decade. Since 2021 he has been heading our exterior design team. In this role he led the exterior development of Concept Recharge setting a manifesto for our future line up. Among other projects, he was the lead exterior designer for the 2019 Volvo S60, V60 and V60 Cross Country models.

He joined Volvo Cars in 2011, as a member of the exterior design team in Gothenburg, Sweden. Prior to his current role he was head of design at the Volvo Design & Concept Center in Camarillo, California from mid-2017 until 2020. T. Jon graduated from Carnegie Mellon University and later attended the Art Center College of Design.
