Goldsky appoints Carl Danielsson as Manager of Communications and Public Affairs for Goldsky Sweden AB

VANCOUVER, Canada, August 26, 2026 — Goldsky Resources Corp (TSX-V: GSKR, FNSE: GSKR SDB, OTCQX: GSKRF, FRA: HEG0) ("Goldsky Resources" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that as part of the next stage of growth and stakeholder interaction, it has appointed Carl Danielsson as Manager of Communications and Public Affairs for Goldsky Sweden AB, effective October 1, 2026.

Carl brings close to 20 years of experience working with public affairs and public relations in Sweden, having worked as a consultant, press officer and a political background from the Swedish Parliament and the European Parliament in Brussels. Carl is currently a partner with The Labyrinth Public Affairs where he is the business lead for metals and minerals at the agency.

Carl has extensive experience working with mining and mineral exploration related policies, including legislation, land use questions, permitting and stakeholder dialogue. He has worked with the Barsele project for two years.

Noora Ahola, the Managing Director Nordics comments: "Carl is one of the most experienced public affairs and communications professionals with mining experience in Sweden. We know him well and very much look forward to him joining the Goldsky team. His appointment reflects our ambition to have an ongoing, constructive stakeholder dialogue throughout the permitting of our projects."

Following the consolidation of 100% ownership of Barsele, Goldsky has entered a new phase focused on disciplined project advancement. Alongside ongoing environmental and technical studies and planning, the Company is investing in the people, systems and especially environmental capability required to develop high-quality Nordic mining projects responsibly. Goldsky will have an increased focus on local and regional stakeholder dialogue as the development of the Barsele project continues to advance.

Additional technical appointments are expected during the Autumn of 2026 as Goldsky continues building a best-in-class project development team.
