Former Minister of Enterprise appointed as Non-Executive Director of Goldsky Resources

VANCOUVER, Canada, November 11, 2026 — Goldsky Resources Corp (TSX-V: GSKR, FNSE: GSKR SDB, OTCQX: GSKRF, FRA: HEG0) ("Goldsky Resources" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that it has appointed Karl-Petter Thorwaldsson as a non-executive Director of Goldsky Resources.

Highlights:

- Former Minister of Enterprise (which included mineral policy and legislation) in Sweden, a position he held until the General election of 2022.
- Served on several boards and acted as senior advisor for well known Swedish companies, including the steel manufacturer SSAB and the insurance company AFA Försäkringar.
- Served as Chairman of the largest trade union organization in Sweden, the Swedish Trade Union Confederation (LO), a position he held from 2012-2020.
- Appointed to facilitate Goldsky's ambitions to become a Nordic gold producing mining company.

"I am happy and excited to join the Goldsky-team and start engaging in Storuman and Västerbotten and help advance the Barsele project. The Barsele deposit is the largest undeveloped primary gold deposit in Sweden with an excellent location, good infrastructure access and in a part of Sweden with an excellent and historic understanding of mining and exploration. Our ambition is to create a sustainable, modern mining operation with a minimal environmental footprint. Our Finnish Rajapalot project also provides a special strategic relevance for Europe because of the cobalt associated with the gold. This, together with a great team and the endorsement added from our largest shareholder Agnico Eagle, made it easy for me to accept this position", says Karl-Petter Thorwaldsson.

"Karl-Petter brings invaluable experience to Goldsky in government legislation, labour affairs and mine development policy. He will provide important guidance in our stakeholder engagement on our journey to develop a modern, Nordic mining operation. I would like to welcome Karl-Petter to the team and express how much I look forward to working together", says Russell Bradford, CEO of Goldsky Resources.
