VANCOUVER, Canada, November 17, 2026 — Goldsky Resources Corp (TSX-V: GSKR, FNSE: GSKR SDB, OTCQX: GSKRF, FRA: HEG0) ("Goldsky Resources" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that as part of the next stage of growth and development of the Barsele project, it has appointed Josh Stewart as the Company's new Country Manager Sweden, effective as of February 21, 2027.

Highlights:

- Mining engineer with more than 20 years' experience of working within the Swedish mining industry
- Bachelor of Mining Engineering from the University of Queensland in Australia
- Experienced senior mine manager working in the county of Västerbotten with Dragon Mining at their Svartliden gold mine and Fäboliden gold project
- Appointment made to manage the Barsele project site and development

"We are delighted to welcome Josh to Goldsky. He brings valuable experience and strong regional expertise, including a long background in mining development and permitting for a gold project in Västerbotten County. His leadership and permitting know-how will be key as we coordinate the drilling, feasibility work, environmental studies and community engagement on the Barsele project. This is an exciting time for the project and I very much look forward to working together with Josh," says Noora Ahola, Managing Director Nordics, Goldsky Resources.
