

January 21, 2026

Agneta Nestenborg and Erik Strömqvist resign as board members of Studsvik AB at their own request

Studsvik AB (publ) ("Studsvik") today announces that board members Agneta Nestenborg and Erik Strömqvist have chosen to resign as board members of Studsvik. Agneta Nestenborg has been a member of Studsvik's board since 2010 and Erik Strömqvist since 2021.

"On behalf of the board, I would like to express my sincere thanks to Agneta and Erik for their valuable work and commitment to Studsvik over the years. We wish them both all the best for the future," comments chairman of the board Jan Bardell.

Due to the resignations of Agneta Nestenborg and Erik Strömqvist, Studsvik's nomination committee has decided to adjust the proposal for the extraordinary general meeting's decision on the number of board members from eight to six. For more information about the extraordinary general meeting to be held on January 23, 2026, please refer to the notice and supplement to the notice.

For further information, please contact:
Jan Bardell, chairman of the board, Studsvik AB (publ), jan.bardell@studsvik.com

About Studsvik

Studsvik offers a range of advanced technical services to the global nuclear power industry. Studsvik's business focus areas are fuel and materials technology, reactor analysis software, decontamination and radiation protection as well as technical platforms for handling, conditioning and volume reduction of radioactive waste. The company has more than 75 years' experience of nuclear technology and radiological services. Studsvik has approx. 540 employees in 7 countries and the company's shares are listed on Nasdaq Stockholm.

www.studsvik.com